

Los Programas

Los Programas

Vamos Outdoors Project builds community for Latinx and English Language Learner families through outdoor activities. Programs empower participants, building confidence and connection to the land. Programs are supported by representational mentors and volunteers.